

The PHILADELPHIA PUBLIC LEDGER

will have at the Peace Conference the strongest force of trained expert journalists ever gotten together by any American newspaper

The WORLD'S GREATEST JOURNALIST

DR. E. J. DILLON

Has been engaged by the Philadelphia PUBLIC LEDGER to represent it at the Peace Conference.

"This distinguished Journalist speaks a dozen different languages, has the personal acquaintance of all the leaders in political life in Europe and is more intimately acquainted with the secret policies of the chancelleries of Europe than any other living man. Lord Burnham gave his consent to the PUBLIC LEDGER engagement provided we would share it with the London Telegraph, which we were very glad to do.

"DR. E. J. DILLON is far and away the ablest, the most cultured, the most adventurous newspaper man I have ever met. There is no one on the English press who can wield a pen so luminous, so lucid and so learned, nor could we have from any other writer such expositions of the inside track of contemporary events, both in war and peace."—THE LATE WILLIAM T. STEAD, in the Review of Reviews.

We engaged Dr. Dillon to go to Russia for the Public Ledger, but sent him back to the Peace Conference, after which he will proceed to Russia.

We also have Mr. Harold J. Learoyd, former Managing Editor of the Public Ledger and New York Evening Post; Mr. Raymond G. Carroll, who has been thro' all the fighting with the American and French troops, for the Public Ledger; Mr. Clinton Gilbert, one of our Washington correspondents, formerly editor New York Tribune, and

LONDON TIMES— PUBLIC LEDGER CABLE SERVICE

Which will carry cables from the following authorities:

MILITARY PROBLEMS	HERBERT SIDEBOTHAM, whose commentaries Kitchener recommended to his generals.
NAVAL PROBLEMS	CAPT. CHARLES NAPIER ROBINSON, R. N., Naval Critic of the London Times .
GENERAL DIPLOMATIC PROBLEMS	H. WICKHAM STEED, Foreign Editor of the Times and its former correspondent at Berlin, Rome and Vienna; author of "The Hapsburg Monarchy."
FRENCH PROBLEMS	G. S. ADAM, Paris correspondent of the Times and formerly of the Reuter's Agency .
